INTERNSHIPS

Full Stack Web Developer , Front end Developer
Jul 2023 — Present

During my internship at Social Prachaar, I gained hands-on experience in both front-end and back-end web development. Collaborating with a dynamic team, I designed and implemented responsive web applications using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. For user-friendly interfaces, I utilized the Bootstrap framework. In back-end development, I worked with Python and the Django framework. Additionally, I contributed to database management tasks, handling both SQL and MongoDB. Active participation in code reviews, debugging, and optimization efforts showcased my adaptability to new technologies. This experience provided a solid foundation for applying comprehensive software development principles in a professional setting.
